Advertising on ViolinPractice.com

Advertising on ViolinPractice.com is an excellent way of reaching members of the violin community. Parents, students and teachers all return to this site again and again in order to utilize the high quality resources in the form of videos, articles and print materials. The following advertising options are available: Banner Ads: 160 x 600 in all left hand columns or 728 x 90 across the bottom of all pages. Video Leads: Put a 30 second commercial for your organization, company or product at the beginning of any of the VP exclusive videos displayed in our "Free Resources." These are videos of performances on standard violin repertoire and masterclasses that are found exclusively on ViolinPractice.com. These videos are also promoted on our YouTube, Facebook and LinkedIn pages. Merchant Directory Listings: List your organization or company in our Merchant Directory. Individual listings for each merchant include the option to upload files, multiple images and display any video embed code. View this listing for Potter Violins to see the possibilities. Product Listings: List products in our marketplace. The same features are available for product listings that are available for merchant directory listings. Video embedding is a great way to feature and sell your product. All listings link back to your site. Please contact us at info@violinpractice.com to request a rate sheet or for more information.
